Former inland cargo vessel that has been converted into a recreational vessel. The layout from the front to the back is as follows: owner's cabin with a double bed, toilet, galley, spacious salon, wheelhouse and aft cabin with 2 bunk beds. The roof of the wheelhouse can be dismantled and the windows can be folded. This creates an air draft of only approximately 1.60 m and with a draft of only approximately 60 cm she has an enormous sailing area at her disposal. The layout is spacious and clear and can be easily adjusted where desired. This is a boat for the handyman or the water sports enthusiast who does not make too many demands.
